

Addition word problem

1. A book has three stories. First story covers 250 pages. Second story covers 104 pages. The third story covers 400 pages. How many pages in the book totally?
2. A man sold 220 balloons at a carnival in the morning and 76 balloons in the evening. How many balloons did he sell in all?
3. It took Ram 678 steps to get to street level and 215 steps from there to Madison Square Garden. How many steps in total did he take to get to Madison Square Gardens?
4. Calvin counted his candy and saw that he had 25 chocolate candies, 15 gummy candies, and 30 hard candies. How many candies does Calvin have in total?

5. Before going for a party, Grata spent 10 minutes putting on her costume, Lia spent 8 minutes putting on her costume, and Ted spent 20 minutes putting on her costume. How much total time did it take them to put on their costumes?

6. For a survey, Chris visited 12 houses a day. If Luigi visited 9 more houses than Chris did, how many houses did Luigi visit?

7. From the hotel, Tom walked 256 steps to the nearest restaurant then another 438 steps to Central Park. How many steps did he take to get to Central Park from the hotel?

8. A building has 100 floors and it stands 1,250 feet to the top floor and the antenna spire is 204 feet. How tall is the Building?