

Multiplication and Division word problems

1. Arun is buying several boxes of cookies for a birthday party. There are 9 cookies in each box. If Arun brings 7 boxes to the party, how many cookies is he bringing?
2. Jim has a total of 100 watermelons in his truck and has to deliver the same number of watermelons to 4 different grocery stores, how many watermelons will each store receive?
3. Kevin is organizing his baseball cards into stacks of ten cards each. How many baseball cards does he have if he can make 12 stacks?
4. A person is selling his baseball cards at a yard sale. He is selling his cards for $3 each. At the end of the yard sale, he made $60. How many baseball cards did he sell?

5. Tom has twice as many animal robots than Michael. If Michael has 8 animal robots, how many animal robots does Tom have?

6. Kelsi plays video games for the same amount of time every day. Over the last 7 days, she played a total of 21 hours of video games. How many hours of video games did she play each day?

7. David buys 5 fruits on Monday, and 7 more on Tuesday. How many has he bought in total?

8. Debbie waters her houseplants several times throughout the day. Over the past 50 days, she watered her plants a total of 200 times. How many times does she water her houseplants each day?